BEWARE !!!

Love is in the air on Aruba!

Last night on the Kukoo Kunuku Party Bus at the champagne toast, Adolfo Folaico from Miami got down on one knee to propose to his girlfriend Erica Sanchez. She said Yes and the rest is history ! Although they have known each other for a long time Adolfo waited patiently until they were vacationing on Aruba to propose to his sweetheart. Witnessed by their fellow kukoo friends, it was a great beginning to a fabulous night of celebration on our beautiful island. hosted by the wild and crazy, Big Mamma. After an evening of dancing, romancing and having Fun, Papi Ray, bus driver extraordinaire. made sure everyone got safely home.

GO KUKOO !!!!

Marrakesh 'terrorist' blast kills at least 14

MARRAKESH, Morocco (AFP) – A Marrakesh explosion branded as a "terrorist" attack by Morocco and France killed at least 14 people on Thursday, including six French nationals, officials, medical staff and witnesses said.

As King Mohammed IV ordered an urgent probe, Moroccan officials said the explosion at the busy Argana cafe on the popular Jamaa el-Fna square may have been the work of a suicide bomber.

Medical sources put the death toll at 15, including six French citizens and three Moroccans, and said about 20 people were wounded, of whom seven French, two Dutch, two Swiss, to Russians and two Tunisians.

Rabat and Paris condemned what they said was a "terrorist" attack, with French President Nicolas Sarkozy branding it as "heinous, cruel and cowardly".

France's Prime Minister Francois Fillon said diplomats in Morocco had been mobilised to provide support to victims and their families in coordination with local authorities.

The explosion happened "on the terrace" of the Argana cafe, Latifa Idrissi, the wife of 28-year-old waiter Yassine Bouzidi who was killed in the blast, told AFP.

The facade of the cafe and the first floor were severely damaged, and tables and chairs strewn around the terrace.

'Catastrophic' tornadoes ravage US

TUSCALOOSA, Alabama (AFP) – Shocked Americans struggled Thursday to grasp the magnitude of the worst US tornadoes in decades, which carved a trail of destruction across the south, leaving 280 people dead and some communities virtually wiped off the map.

Disbelief and despair were written on the faces of residents of cities and towns in seven states crippled by the ferocious spring storms as they picked through the remains of destroyed homes, businesses and schools, in surreal scenes of devastation more common to war zones and massive earthquakes.

The severe weather killed at least 184 people and injured several hundred more on Wednesday in Alabama alone, authorities told AFP, and President Barack Obama said he would travel to the state Friday for a first-hand look at the devastation.

"The loss of life has been heartbreaking, especially in Alabama," Obama said Thursday at the White House, calling the destruction "nothing short of catastrophic".

States of emergency were declared from the central state of Oklahoma to Georgia on the eastern seaboard, and governors called out the National Guard -- including 2,000 troops in hardest hit Alabama -- to help with rescue and cleanup operations.

Ultimate Automobiles welcomes the long awaited MINI Countryman to Aruba

For decades, the name MINI Cooper has been associated with chic, high style jet setters; a unique and economic car that demonstrated the owners wisdom and good taste. Ultimate Automobiles is proud to announce they are now the exclusive distributor of the long awaited MINI Cooper Countryman, the crossover version of the popular car- an SUV MINI that fits a busy family's needs.

16 inches longer than the classic Cooper, (for a total of 161.7) and four inches wider (for a total of 70.4) with more headroom makes this new model a comfortable fit for four adults and luggage, while keeping the styling as close as possible to the original beloved design. It maintains the Cooper's iconic proportions and enlarges the interior but with four-door access and an all-wheel-drive an option.

The famous tagline "You never forget your first MINI" applies more than ever as the new, with a car that embodies what the MINI has always stood for: energy, escapism, excitement, individuality and innovation. Pass by the Ultimate Automobiles showroom at Sabana Blanco #35, or call 583-9800 or email info@ultimatearuba.com for more information and to get a gander at the new MINI Countryman.

New catalogue from Waldy Simson is available!

“Give art a valuable place in your life”

Versatile artist Waldy Simson wishes to inform the public that his new catalogue is available.

On the cover of the catalogue one can see an image of the portrait of universal and versatile artist Michael Jackson. The portrait was created by Simson by cutting in black and white paper.

Beside a brief biography of Waldy Simson the catalogue also includes a view of artistic projects hosted by Simson and pictures of works of art coming out of the different disciplines of art which he practises.

The production of the catalogue was made possible by, among others, UNOCA, Norma Le Grand, Norine van der Wijne, Andy Landus and printed Interpret.

Simson has dedicated the catalogue to all the lovers of his art and to all those who, through the years, have supported his artistic activities.

Sony working with police on PlayStation hack

TOKYO (AFP) – Sony said it was working with investigators after hackers stole data from users of its PlayStation Network, and told customers it would restore services only when it was confident it was secure.

The PlayStation Network and Qriocity streaming music service were turned off on April 20 in the wake of an "external intrusion," according to Sony spokesman Patrick Seybold.

"We are currently working with law enforcement on this matter as well as a recognised technology security firm to conduct a complete investigation," Seybold said in a blog posted Thursday on the PlayStation website.

"This malicious attack against our system and against our customers is a criminal act and we are proceeding aggressively to find those responsible."

Launched in November 2006, the PlayStation Network allows PlayStation console users to play games online, challenge others on the Internet, stream movies, or get other services.

The Japanese electronics giant said it was possible hackers had taken users' credit card data.

"While all credit card information stored in our systems is encrypted and there is no evidence at this time that credit card data was taken, we cannot rule out the possibility," Seybold said.

Sony said it had emailed all 77 million users worldwide to warn them that their data may have been stolen.

Sony said it was "working day and night to restore operations as quickly as possible" and expected to have some services up and running within a week.

Health Tip: Ease Baby's Stuffy Nose

-- Easing a sniffly baby's stuffy nose can make both baby and parents feel better. Here find some suggests how to help reduce nasal congestion in babies:

*With the baby lying on the back and a towel rolled up beneath the shoulders, place two-to-three drops of a saline solution into the nose before rolling baby onto the stomach.

*Use a nasal suction bulb, sometimes called an aspirator, to suck mucus from baby's nose. Follow the product's directions carefully.

*Elevate the head of baby's crib.

*Get baby to drink a lot of fluids, so breast-feed or offer formula frequently.

*Use a cool-mist vaporizer. But don't let the room get too humid, and remember to disinfect the vaporizer daily.

*Before bedtime, run a hot shower and take baby into the steamy bathroom to help break up congestion. Never put baby in the hot shower.

*Don't use cough-and-cold medicines or nasal sprays in children younger than 2.

La Cabana Beach & Racquet Club Shows that It Cares

A part of La Cabana Beach & Racquet Club's mission statement includes the following compelling sentence: "We take pride and ownership in our environment and social responsibilities."

While the resort is always active, working on behalf of the island community at large, the housekeeping-department is especially aware of the importance of lending a helping hand.

This year the department introduced the Gran Cambio team, putting in place a committee in charge of making a difference.

Their first initiative was undertaken in collaboration with Total Cleaning, a company which renders regular services to the resort.

Total Cleaning donated 21 laundry baskets and La Cabana's Team filled these laundry baskets with bed sheets, blankets, pillow cases, bath towels, wash cloths and kitchen towels, designed to make life at St. Michael Paviljoen, a bit more comfortable.

St. Michael Paviljoen was overjoyed with the donation and the efforts of La Cabana Beach & Racquet Club and Total Cleaning, since these items were really needed by the elderly residing in the facility.

St. Michael Paviljoen is one of three homes for the elderly, which are often infirm and limited in mobility. While the institutions are government subsidized they often rely on the goodness of community members for many of their urgent needs.

High oil prices fuel ExxonMobil bumper profits

ExxonMobil

NEW YORK, (AFP) - Exxon-Mobil reported nearly $11 billion in quarterly profit Thursday on the back of a surge in oil prices that has put the company in the crosshairs of US politicians, including President Barack Obama.

As Americans struggle to cover the higher price of gasoline, Exxon reported net income of $10.65 billion in the first quarter, a leap of 69 percent from the year-ago period.

Even as Obama has vowed to strip oil companies of a $4 billion tax break, banner profits for energy companies were all-but-certain this month as Arab unrest this year drove oil prices toward the record $147 a barrel high set in July 2008.

ConocoPhillips posted Wednesday a 43 percent rise in first-quarter profit to $3 billion. Chevron, the second-largest US energy producer, is set to report earnings today.

Higher fuel prices are pressuring growth in the global economy and weigh particularly hard on the poor, as well as Americans struggling to recover from recession.

Chafing under gasoline prices that have climbed a dollar from a year ago to about an average $4 a gallon (3.8 liters) at the pump, consumers are complaining and politicians are listening.

The oil and gas industry has also warned that cutting tax breaks for exploration and subsidies will cost jobs at a time of high unemployment after the worst economic crisis in decades.

For ExxonMobil, the world's largest publicly traded company by market value, first-quarter earnings per share leaped 61 percent to $2.14, beating the average analyst estimate of $2.06. Revenue climbed to $114.0 billion, compared with $90.25 billion in the 2010 first quarter, missing expectations of $114.85 billion.

Shares in ExxonMobil, the biggest blue chip on the Dow Jones Industrial Average, fell 1.3 percent to $86.65 in afternoon New York trade.

Capital and exploration spending climbed 14 percent to $7.8 billion for the first quarter as demand booms, the Irving, Texas-based company said. "We continue with plans to invest between $33 billion and $37 billion per year over the next five years to develop new energy supplies to meet future demand growth," Tillerson said.

Alstom wins $193 million Lima rail contract

LIMA, Peru (AFP) - French energy and transport company Alstom has won a $193 million (130 million euro) contract to provide 19 metro trains for the Lima metropolitan transit network, the company announced on Thursday.

The Peruvian investment company, Proinversion, said the first phase of the long-term contract would be inaugurated in July 2011 and operate over 13 miles (21.6 kilometers) between the north and south suburbs of Lima, which has some eight million people.

Each of the metro trains will have five cars and be built in Alstom's European factories, the company said in a press release. The first cars will be delivered in late 2012 and go into service the following year.

The cars will operate on the metro's expanded above-ground network, which will eventually comprise 26 stations over 19 miles (32 kilometers) between Villa el Salvador in the south and San Juan de Lurigancho in the north.

Ultimately, Lima's electric train network will include seven lines, although it took more than 20 years to complete the first line.

Greater Lima has tremendous traffic problems, but no underground metro. So far, the city has not yet decided whether it will build an underground system, although it started a feasibility study in 2010.

Las Vegas to host Michael Jackson show

LOS ANGELES (AFP) — Cirque du Soleil and Michael Jackson's estate unveiled plans Wednesday for a permanent show honoring the pop icon at a Las Vegas casino resort, including items from his Neverland Ranch.

While the permanent show won't open until early 2013, the dance company will also bring its Michael Jackson "The Immortal" world tour to the US gambling mecca's Mandalay Bay resort and casino this December, they said.

"We are excited about creating this new Michael Jackson production for Mandalay Bay. Michael Jackson is creatively inspiring for Cirque du Soleil artisans and creative teams," said Cirque du Soleil boss Daniel Lamarre.

The executors of the late King of Pop's estate have agreed to an official Michael Jackson Fan Fest opening at the same time as the tour shows in Las Vegas, the first such officially-endorsed project since he died in June 2009.

"Because of its remote location, few people will ever get to visit Michael's Neverland Ranch. But millions of Michael's fans will be able to hear Michael's music and experience him in tangible and exciting new ways," they added.

The "Immortal" world tour opens in Montreal in October and has dates scheduled through until next July in Canada and the United States, including 10 dates in Las Vegas from December 3-14.

The permanent Jackson exhibition, to open in the spring of 2013, will include a Michael Jackson Lounge, described as "a space that will bring to life

"The world may never again know a force in entertainment of the caliber of Michael Jackson.

"We are deeply honored and humbled to be home to incredible entertainment celebrating his legacy for new generations to come," said Mandalay Bay boss Chuck Bowling.

The Montreal-based contemporary circus troupe has previous experience tackling the artistic legacy of major musical stars like Jackson, whose "Thriller" album was the best-selling in history.

Cirque du Soleil honored Elvis with their "Viva Elvis" production and worked with surviving members of the Beatles and the wives of John Lennon and George Harrison to produce "Love," featuring hits from the British band's catalogue.

Royal campers set up in south London

LONDON, England (AFP) - Using hair tongs to hammer in her tent pegs, Rachel Huddleston admitted she was not a natural camper. But the 19-year-old American was happy to forgo some home comforts for William and Kate.

"We are a bit out of our element here," she said Thursday as she chased after the tent for the umpteenth time as it blew across Clapham Common, a patch of land in south London hosting a makeshift campsite for royal wedding fans.

Huddleston is one of several hundred people expected at "Camp Royale", set up to provide a budget alternative to a hotel for those wanting to visit London to celebrate Prince William's marriage to Kate Middleton today.

"I think they're just adorable. It's a fairytale story," Huddleston said of the couple, adding: "We're so excited. There will be all these people from all over the world -- everyone is joining together over one thing."

The student and her friend Michelle Knapik, 20, hope to make some new friends at the camp. "Our tent is for three people, so we need to find a friend. Perhaps whoever lends us a hammer," Huddleston said, grinning.

For three nights, they came equipped with proper beds made with Egyptian cotton, bathrooms with running water, sheepskin carpets, champagne and hot meals.

FOOTBALL: UEFA to probe Mourinho outburst

Real Madrid's Portuguese coach Jose Mourinho leaves the field after being expelled during the match between Real Madrid and Barcelona at the Santiago Bernabeu stadium in Madrid on April 27 2011.

NYON, Switzerland (AFP) – UEFA yesterday announced it had launched a disciplinary inquiry into events surrounding Wednesday's fractious Champions League semi-final tie between Real Madrid and Barcelona.

One of the incidents being investigated is Real coach Jose Mourinho's post-match outburst in which the Portuguese suggested referees always showed favouritism to Barcelona.

European football's governing body said it was also investigating the throwing of missiles by Real Madrid fans at the Santiago Bernabeu, a pitch invasion and the red card shown to Real defender Pepe on the hour mark for a tackle on Dani Alves.

The dismissal of Mourinho will also be discussed at the hearing on this week.

UEFA are also looking into the red card handed out to Jose Pinto, Barcelona's reserve goalkeeper, who received his marching orders following the half-time fracas on the touchline.

After Barcelona won the first leg tie 2-0 Mourinho prompted a storm of protest from Barcelona over his post match comments alleging bias towards his side's bitter rivals.

The Real Madrid coach said: "It shouldn't have been a red card for Pepe. Maybe someone can give me an answer. A foul on a Barcelona player and miraculously a red card.

"I don't know if Barcelona are friendly or not. They are a great team so congratulations to them but they have this power. Pepe sent off and me too. I don't know why.

"Why? Why does a fantastic team need this. (Anders) Frisk (the referee for the 2009 semi-final between Barcelona and Chelsea) (Wolfgang) Stark (the match referee). Why? Why? Football is equal for everyone. The team that deserves to win, should win.

Barcelona issued a statement giving their reaction to Mourinho's comments.

"In the post match press conference, Jose Mourinho severely criticised the referee Herr (Wolfgang) Stark and insinuated that UEFA treated Barca favourably," the club said.

West Indies make 171 against Pakistan

BRIDGETOWN, Barbados (AFP) – Saeed Ajmal and Wahab Riaz enhanced Pakistan's chances of a series-clinching victory in the rain-affected third one-day International against West Indies here yesterday.

Ajmal captured three for 29 from 8.4 overs, and Wahab took three for 38 from eight overs, as Pakistan dismissed their hosts for 171 in 43.4 overs after choosing to field in the match at Kensington Oval.

The visitors appeared to be under pressure, when compatriots Lendl Simmons and Darren Bravo comfortably added 86 for the second wicket in a volley of strokes before Ajmal and Wahab brought Pakistan back into the match, which was reduced to 45 overs-a-side.

Saeed held a return catch in the 21st over to dismiss Simmons for the West Indies top score of 51, and Mohammad Hafeez trapped Darren Bravo lbw for 47 in the 28th over to leave the home team on 118 for three.

But Saeed and Wahab ensured there was no fight-back from the remaining batsmen, as they all failed to offer any substance or stability before a disappointed holiday crowd.

Pakistan are playing an unchanged line-up, but West Indies made two changes, replacing Anthony Martin and wicketkeeper/batsman Carlton Baugh Jr with fast bowlers Andre Russell and Ravi Rampaul.

Play began an hour and 45 minutes later than scheduled, after rain delayed the start of the match on the day that the island celebrates their national heroes, including legendary former West Indies all-rounder Garfield Sobers.

The Pakistanis lead the five match series 2-0, following an eight-wicket victory in the first ODI last Saturday at the Beausejour Cricket Ground in St. Lucia, where they also won the second ODI by seven wickets.

The victories meant that Pakistan have now won their last seven ODIs against West Indies spread over the last four years, including their 10-wicket victory in a recent World Cup quarter-final in Bangladesh.

NBA Thunder advance as Spurs survive upset

SAN ANTONIO, Texas (AFP) – Top seeds San Antonio narrowly avoided a shock exit while NBA scoring champion Kevin Durant bagged 41 points to take Oklahoma City into the second playoff round on Wednesday.

Durant scored 16 of the Thunder's last 20 points, including the final nine, as hosts Oklahoma City rallied from a late nine-point deficit to beat Denver 100-97 and win their best-of-seven Western Conference series four games to one.

The Grizzlies can still complete one of the biggest upsets in NBA playoff history with a victory in game six at home on Friday, while the Spurs must win that game and a seventh in San Antonio on Sunday to advance.

NBA Heat beat 76ers to reach showdown with Boston

MIAMI (AFP) – Dwyane Wade scored 12 of his 26 points in the fourth quarter in leading Miami to a 97-91 victory over Philadelphia that advanced the Heat into a second-round NBA playoff matchup with Boston.

Chris Bosh scored 22 points and matched Wade with a game-high 11 rebounds while LeBron James added 16 points, 10 rebounds and a game-high eight assists as Miami ousted the 76ers 4-1 in the best-of-seven Eastern Conference series.

"(It was) very difficult. That team is resilient," Wade said. "We knew it was going to be that way."

Miami, which went 1-3 against Boston this season, won a playoff series for the first time since the 2006 NBA Finals to create a much-anticipated matchup against the Celtics and superstars Kevin Garnett, Ray Allen and Paul Pierce.

"We have gotten better since game one of the regular season and we have gotten better every game since," Wade said. "It's going to be a great series."

"We're going to be ready. Philly got us ready."

The Celtics ousted James from the playoffs last season by eliminating the Cleveland Cavaliers on their way to the NBA Finals. Now James and his new teammates have a chance to dethrone the reigning East champions.

"It wouldn't be right if we didn't play them," Heat coach Erik Spoelstra said.

"We understand where we are in this league and where the Celtics are. They have proven themselves. They were the Eastern Conference champions last year."

"If we want to get to anywhere where we want to go, and the goals that we set for ourselves early in training camp, we have to go through them."

The Chicago Bulls will face Orlando or Atlanta in the other second-round Eastern Conference matchup. The host Hawks can eliminate Orlando in game six on Thursday.

Mario Chalmers added 20 points for Miami while Elton Brand and Andre Iguodala each scored 22 points to lead the 76ers.

Miami, which won the first three games of the series, finished off Philadelphia despite a late 76er rally.

"We fought to the finish as we said we were going to do," 76ers coach Doug Collins said.

Wade sank a 3-pointer to put Miami ahead 81-71 with 8:20 remaining and capped his run of seven of eight Heat points with a driving jumper after the 76ers had closed the gap to boost Miami's lead back to 86-78 with 5:00 to play.

Amnesty cautions Brazil on WCup, Games upgrades

BRASILIA, Brazil (AFP) - Amnesty International on Thursday criticized government land-taking in Rio de Janeiro for infrastructure improvements ahead of the 2014

World Cup and Olympic Games two years later.

"Forced evictions, it is kind of the other side of the Olympics," Salil Shetty, Amnesty's secretary general, told AFP in an interview.

Parts of Rio de Janeiro's slums, or favelas, are being razed to make way for highways, but Amnesty's chief warned that human rights are at stake. A third of Rio's six million residents live in the shantytowns.

"Nobody denies there is need of infrastructure and reorganization for those projects, the question is how you do it," Shetty said.

Brazil is in the midst of a massive infrastructure upgrade -- building new roads, expanding airports and repairing stadiums -- in advance of the World Cup and Olympic Games.

But with greater economic power and now hosting high-profile global events, Brazil, which is campaigning for a permanent seat on the UN Security Council, must be careful to respect human rights at home, Amnesty said.

"Brazil is becoming more and more important at the global stage," Shetty said. "As they have greater aspirations to become an international actor, then they have to get their domestic house in order. I think there will be pressure."

Rousseff has taken a more neutral stance on Iran than her predecessor, Luiz Inacio Lula da Silva, who had a friendly relationship with Tehran. Brazil recently voted for appointing a special UN investigator on human rights in Iran.
